Four firemen at work on a blase in the rear of the three story building at No. 120 Broome street this afternoon were swent by Bames from an explosion of nanothal and serious. Injured.

Acting Chief Austin McDermott and Joseph Kelchum, of Engine No. 8, were sent to Gouverneur Hospital for treatmen. Richard Snelling and Frank Bracken of Engine No. 5, were treated by the ambulance surgeons at a drug store at Broome and Sufficik streets and sent home in cass.

The fire originated in a cleaning establishment conducted by Michael Cohen. He had a big can of naphthal stored in a rear room, but the firemen knew nothing about it when they started in to smother the blaze. The explosion released a storm of flery vapor that overwheimed them.

Policemen fought their way through the fishues from the street and rescued the fidured firemen. The property damage done by the fire was small. Made Foreign Agent.

"In 1815 the company decided to secure business in foreign countries, and, as some small amount of business of this character, that the company had previoually done had been carried on through the New York agency, I was appointed on January 23, 1865.
